1990 IMOGENE PASS RUN

The 17th Annual Imogene Pass Run was run at 8:35 a.m. on Saturday, September 8, 1990. The day dawned cool and clear and remained excellent for the race with blue skies and warm temperatures throughout the day, a perfect Indian Summer day.

1990 was a record year for participants with 472 finishers crossing the finish line in Telluride, 409 runners and 63 walkers. All of the original starters finished the race. There were 335 men and 137 women finishers, and ages ranged from 16 to 75. Most of the participants were from the San Juan region, but a significant number came from the Denver-Boulder area, as well as from New Mexico and Arizona. A few came from as far away as California and Oregon on the West Coast and from Florida and Pennsylvania to the east, with one foreign runner having come from Ontario, Canada.

The race has apparently entered a somewhat mature stage in that records are getting harder to break. Despite the perfect conditions, only one record was broken in 1990. Colleen George of Scottsdale, Arizona, set a new record of 3:22:42 (replaces 3:53:04) in the women's 50-59 division.
